- ▶ Printed results from simulation
- ▶ Hydrocarbon dew point at specified conditions available
- ▶ Composition at specified conditions
- ▶ Phase diagram data in electronic form as an option
- ▶ Numerical value of cricondenthem in electronic form as an option

Quick Study

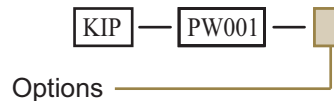

PhaseWizard™ Custom Services are for the analyzer specialist who needs information from a phase diagram such as hydrocarbon dew point and cricondenthem, or needs to simulate sample conditions. All of this can be obtained from PhaseWizard™ software and Custom Services provides the personnel to run the software to produce the information. Given the anticipated composition, and simulation conditions, Custom Services provides a phase diagram, a flash flow chart and a stream data table that includes many physical properties and shows composition changes.

Model Numbering

Your model number is determined by your specific needs. Choose options below.
